ABOUT US

Conservation, Research and Education Opportunities International (CREOi) is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization based in Seattle, WA. We have been in operation since 2005, evolving from an earlier project to support wildlife research and conservation on the Juan Fernandez Islands in Chile. We are staffed by one part-time position, and our grants and operations are guided by an 8-member volunteer Board of Directors.

We currently support two distinct programs: CREOi funds research and outreach efforts that promote wildlife, habitat and natural resource conservation. For details on eligibility and application requirements, please see How to apply. For information on the types of projects we fund, please see Grant history.

We also provide coordination and help recruit students for a biomedical training program in Panama. Undergraduate minority students from the U.S. are eligible. For more information on the program and application details, please email info@creoi.org.

LINKEDIN

CREOi manages a LinkedIn group for current and past grant recipients. Meet other researchers and conservationists and use your CREOi connection to build your professional network. If you have not already received an invitation to the CREOi LinkedIn group and would like to join, please email info@creoi.org.

How to Apply

General information:

- We fund research and outreach projects that have a clear connection to species, habitat or natural resource conservation
- There are no geographic restrictions
- Typical grant range: $2,000 – $8,000
- Grant maximum: $10,000
- Project duration: maximum of two years

For examples of the types of projects we fund, please see Grant history.

Proposals are due each year on April 15 and October 15. Please check at the top of the guidelines document that you are working with the most current version. If the document available here is not the most current version, then it is not yet available. Please check back soon!

We fund a small proportion of the applications that we receive, so PLEASE FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY. Proposals that do not follow the guidelines may be rejected without review of the actual content or merit of the proposal.

A. Progress reports: DUE MAY 31 and NOVEMBER 30

If the project exceeds 6 months in duration, progress reports (descriptive and financial) are due to CREOI each May 31 and Nov 30 (regardless of initiation date of work) until completion or termination of the project.

Body Text {font: Arial regular font-size: 16px; 1em;
line-height: 24px;
margin-bottom:4px;
Last paragraph before
next <h2>heading: 10px;

Progress reports shall include:

- One paragraph succinctly describing the situation being addressed by the project.
- The original list of project objectives, with a detailed description of progress to date under each objective.
- Any additional relevant information that does not relate specifically to stated objectives, e.g., unexpected findings, successes/challenges, changes to project.
- Electronic copies of all products to date related to the project (photos, manuscripts, articles, conference posters, brochures, flyers, etc).
- A completed financial statement (template included with your original grant agreement).

B. Final report: DUE 30 days after project completion

A final report shall be submitted to CREOI within 30 days of completion or termination of the project. Your final report is a document that should be able to stand alone to represent your entire project. Please do not refer to progress reports in your final report.

The final report shall include:

- PROJECT COMPLETION SUMMARY
 - o 400-550 words (similar to an abstract).
 - o Accurate, publication-quality writing (the summary will be available on CREOI's website).
 - o A succinct description of the situation being addressed by the project.
 - o The most important objectives of the project.
 - o The general methods/approach of the project.
 - o The most important results and conclusions of the project.
 - o Any relevant outreach and/or application of the project's results.
- FULL FINAL REPORT
 - o The original and complete list of project objectives, with a detailed description of the accomplishments of the entire project under each objective (including methods, data analyses, research results, outreach/application, etc).
 - o At least one photo related to the project that can be used for CREOI reporting (i.e., no copyright restrictions).
